Performers:

Candice Mills (Singer/Vocals):

The singer, songwriter and multi-instrumentalist Candice Mills is a known name in the DMV music scene. Born in Germany and raised in Northern Virginia, the local vocalist/musician has traveled and curated a sound all her own. Influenced by her musical family and some of her favorite artists, she was bound to take this path of music. Candice's sound and range is what makes her stand out. Her operatic vocals, along with raspy jazz range give another dimension to her unique sound. Candice is a singer with the legendary reggae band See-I, holding a 14-year residency at the well-known nightclub Eighteenth St. Lounge. She's performed and opened for a number of heavy hitters, including Damian Marley, Steel Pulse, Third World, and Gregory Issacs just to name a few. IG: @CandiceMillsMusic

Candescent (Burlesque):t (Burlesque):

Candescent is a multi-talented award-winning performer, specializing in aerial apparatus's (silks, lyra, chains, cube, sling, net, loopy straps, doubles, sphere) Candescent is also a fire eater, fire dancer, stilt walker, LED Dancer, and burlesque performer. Candescent has performed with Zhantra Entertainment, Pyroxotic, and was a resident Aerialist at SAX Restaurant and Lounge in Washington D.C. Javier Miranda (Conga):

Javier Miranda is the conga player and founder of The Empresarios.

The Empresarios is a Washington, D.C. based collective of musicians and DJs who finely tuned their Tropicaliente sound over the past few years and shared this unique blend of tropical beats across the globe. With over three albums of original material and dozens of remixes already released, the Empresarios recently took the next step and launched their own label, Empresarios Musica. Not only do the Empresarios release great music, but they have also brought their live show across the U.S. and Puerto Rico. In recent years they have played great events as the Joshua Tree Music Festival, Landmark Festival and National Cannabis Festival, as well as DC's Funk Parade and H Street Festival. The Empresarios have licensed their music to television networks like NBC, documentaries and films including "Echo Park" (2014) and video games such as EA Sports' popular "FIFA 12" (2012). Mixing together the warm sounds of the Caribbean is the specialty of the Empresarios, so get ready to dance to a fusion of reggae, salsa, hip-hop, reggaeton, dub and house. <https://empresarios.bandzoogle.com/>
